

Oregon DUII Multi-Disciplinary Training Task Force

255 Capitol Street NE, 4th Floor Salem, OR 97310

November 18, 2008

SUBJECT: DUII Multi-Disciplinary Training Task Force Annual Impaired Driving Awards

Once again in 2009, the Oregon DUII Multi-Disciplinary Training Task Force will honor groups, organizations and individuals for their diligent and noteworthy accomplishments in reducing the incident of impaired driving during the past year.

To honor those groups and individuals who made valuable contributions in 2008, we need your nominations. Each of the categories honored by the Task Force are identified and included with this letter. We invite you or your designee to review the categories and submit nomination(s) for any or all of the categories listed.

To assist you with your nomination(s), the Task Force has listed the criteria to be used for selecting the award winners. Your nomination(s) must include information to support the nomination and must be based on actual accomplishments. If you would like to add additional supportive information please feel free to do so.

All nominations must be received prior to February 20, 2009, and mailed to one of the following:

Officer Robert Hayes
Albany Police Department
1117 Jackson Street SE
Albany, OR 97322
(541) 917-7680 / (541) 928-6692 - Fax

DUII MULTI-DISCIPLINARY TRAINING TASK FORCE

ANNUAL IMPAIRED DRIVING AWARDS CRITERA

1. DUII ADVOCATE-OF-THE-YEAR:

This award is presented to an individual who has worked statewide or within their community to enhance and further the efforts against the impaired driving problem. The recipient may be a private citizen, state, city, or county employee, or from a non-profit group or organization.

2. DUII PROSECUTOR-OF-THE-YEAR:

This award is presented to a city, county, or state prosecutor involved in supervising or in the actual prosecution of DUII offenders. The person may be a leader in their jurisdiction in providing prosecution guidance, training, or leadership in deterring DUII through effective prosecution efforts.

3. DUII ENFORCEMENT OFFICER-OF-THE-YEAR:

This award is presented to a sworn police officer from a city police department, county sheriff's office, and the Oregon State Police who is either active in DUII enforcement or was instrumental in establishing, promoting, or supervising a unique or effective DUII enforcement program.

4. DRE OFFICER-OF-THE-YEAR:

This award is presented to an IACP certified Drug Recognition Expert (DRE) from a municipal, county and state law enforcement agency who was active in using and sharing his/her DRE skills to detect, apprehend and assist prosecuting drug-impaired drivers in their community statewide. The recipient should also possess the skills and desire to share and use their DRE knowledge to benefit others in the community, such as fellow law enforcement officers, schools, businesses, and private industry.

5. DUII TRAINER-OF-THE-YEAR:

This award is presented to a police officer, a city, county, state employee, or a private trainer, instrumental in providing or assisting in the delivery of worthwhile training to groups and organizations in how to deter, detect or reduce DUII or alcohol and/or drug related incidents.

6. DUII TREATMENT PROVIDER-OF-THE-YEAR:

This award is presented to an alcohol/drug treatment provider instrumental in providing, supervising or developing a unique, effective and efficient treatment program(s) within their community or within the state.

7. PAROLE AND PROBATION DUII ADVOCATE-OF-THE-YEAR:

This award is presented to a parole and probation officer instrumental in providing, supervising, or developing a unique and effective program aimed at deterring impaired drivers within their community or within the state.

8. GROUP/ORGANIZATION DUII ADVOCATE-OF-THE-YEAR:

This award is presented to a group or organization, private, commercial, or governmental making a notable contribution to the local community or state in deterring DUII by providing leadership and direction in advocating highway safety through decreased impaired driving actions or programs.

9. MEDIA DUII ADVOCATE-OF-THE-YEAR:

This award is presented to a media representative or organization within the local community or state which provided a significant role in delivering a positive message to the citizens of Oregon towards deterring impaired driving, or who made a worthwhile effort to promote traffic safety by reporting on positive impaired driving prevention or deterrence efforts.

10. AGENCY DUII AWARDS:

a. CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT: This award is presented to a City Police Department that initiated or accomplished an effective DUII enforcement program in their city through education, prevention, deterrence, or community involvement. The agency must have also provided encouragement to aggressively train and enforce DUII and drug-impaired driving laws and taken a pro-active approach to deter DUII.

b. SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT: This award is presented to a sheriff's department initiating or accomplished an effective DUII project or program in their area of responsibility through enforcement, prevention or community involvement. The agency must have also provided encouragement to aggressively train and enforce DUII and drug-impaired driving laws and taken a pro-active approach to deter DUII.

c. OREGON STATE POLICE: This award is presented to an Oregon State Police Office or Worksite initiating or accomplished an effective DUII project or program in their area of responsibility through enforcement, prevention, or community involvement. The State Police Office or Worksite must have also provided a willingness to aggressively train and encourage their officers to enforce DUII and drug-impaired driving laws and taken a proactive approach to deter DUII.

11. SENIOR TROOPER MARIA MIGNANO DEDICATION TO DUTY AWARD: This award is presented to a sworn police officer who exemplified the behavior, dedication and professionalism in all aspects of impaired driving detection, apprehension and prosecution during the past year. This award is named in honor of Senior Trooper Mignano who tragically lost her life in 2001 and was dedicated to removing impaired drivers from our roadways.
